Welcome from the Executive Headteacher

Dear Applicant,

thank you for responding to our advertisement for the Class Teacher post within New Wave Federation. We are a family of three Hackney schools Grazebrook Primary, Shacklewell Primary and Woodberry Down Community Primary School.

The role requires someone who is passionate about children's learning and who has a rich knowledge and understanding of how learners learn. The right person will be someone who is up to date with 21st century education, who can use new technologies and who is creative and resourceful. Our parents and carers want the very best education for their children and so do we.

The successful applicant will demonstrate that they are excellent practitioners with a creative approach, are committed to the delivery of high quality teaching and learning, have high expectations, possess excellent communication and interpersonal skills, are good team members.

We can offer you schools which are well resourced, have an established culture of excellence and a commitment to personalised professional development. Our schools are vibrant, diverse and inclusive. If you are an effective communicator, have vision, energy and believe every child can and will succeed, we would like to hear from you.

This pack has been put together to help you with the application process. If you would like to visit the schools for a tour to learn more, we are happy for you to contact us. Please contact Ms Alia Choudhry, Federation Business Manager on 0207 254 1415.

Kind regards,

Mrs Nicole Reid
Executive Headteacher

About Our Schools

Grazebrook Primary School – OFSTED 2012

Grazebrook Primary is a larger than average-sized school. The proportions of pupils from minority ethnic backgrounds and those for whom English is an additional language are well above average. The proportion of disabled pupils and those who have special educational needs is smaller than average. Most of this group have moderate learning difficulties. The proportion of pupils known to be eligible for free school meals is above average. The school has gained many accreditations, including Primary Science Silver Quality Mark, Sing Up Silver, and the Rights Respecting School award. The school runs a daily breakfast club and after school club. The New Wave Teaching Alliance is based at the school. The school meets the government's current floor standards, which set the minimum expectations for pupils' attainment and progress.

At its last OFSTED inspection (February, 2012) it was reported that the school is an Outstanding school.

Shacklewell Primary School – OFSTED 2019

Shacklewell is larger than the average-sized school. The early years consists of two Reception classes and two part-time Nursery classes with provision for two-years-olds. The proportion of pupils with SEND is above average. The proportion of disadvantaged pupils is above average. The school's values of resilience, creativity and hard work are deeply embedded across the school. Pupils thrive as a result. Leaders have been strikingly successful in securing the consistent high quality of teaching and an effective curriculum that underpins learning across the school. This enables pupils of all ages to make substantial progress. Leaders and staff foster a positive environment and conditions which are highly conducive to successful learning. Pupils benefit from the technology that they are encouraged to use from a very early age. They develop high levels of skills in using computers.

At its most recent OFSTED inspection (March, 2019) it was reported that the school is an Outstanding school.

Woodberry Down Community Primary School – OFSTED 2012

Woodberry Down Community Primary School is a larger than average sized primary school where most of the pupils are from ethnic minority backgrounds. The majority of pupils are learning English as an additional language. A significant minority of these are at the early stages of language acquisition. The proportion of pupils supported by school action plus or with a statement of special educational needs is above average. Many more pupils than in most schools join or leave partway through their primary education. The proportion of pupils known to be eligible for free school meals is well above average. A large minority of pupils are refugees. The school meets the current government floor standard, which sets the minimum expectations for pupils' attainment and progress. This is an outstanding school where the life chances of all pupils are maximized. Pupils' achievement is outstanding. The Apple Regional Teaching Alliance is now based at this school which was awarded to the New Wave Teaching Alliance.

At its last OFSTED inspection (June, 2012) it was reported that the school is an Outstanding school.
